SAINT MARY'S ACADEMY
WINDSOR, ONTARIO

TO OUR LADY OF LOURDES
MOTHER MOST PURE

We, the Class of 1958,
with a fervent prayer for guidance
lovingly dedicate this sixth volume of
The Marian Tower

*Queen of Heaven crowned with stars
In glorious splendor bright,
The Triune God bends over you
With rapturous delight
As all the angel-choirs sing
Your praise, O Queen of light.*

J. O'Leary.

Bishop's Message

Since this is the Centennial Year of Mary's apparitions at Lourdes, may I invite you to make reverently this little meditation upon the fourth station of the Cross:

Jesus Meets His Afflicted Mother REFLECTION

In God's plan Jesus and Mary, the Mother and Son, are never far apart. We are not surprised to find tradition insisting that the Man of Sorrows and the Mother of Sorrows met on the way to Calvary because "the divine Blood and the tears of the Mother are mingled for the redemption of the human race".

The most beautiful of the children of men is scarcely recognizable in His pitiable condition. Clad in His now blood-stained robe; His whole head is enclosed in a sort of cap of 72 thorns which St. Bernard informs us inflicted no less than 1,000 punctures; His adorable face is dripping with spittle and Blood; His throat and lips are parched; dust and grit from the road are the only ointment for His gaping wounds . . . This is when he meets His mother!

APPLICATION

Never did or could a mother love a son so tenderly as Mary loved Jesus. Never did or could a son love a mother as perfectly as Jesus loved Mary. But the very intensity of their affection instead of being a solace only magnified their grief a thousand fold. Not a word was spoken for theirs was a sorrow beyond words. Even their glances, St. Alphonsus says, were like cruel arrows inevitably inflicting more and more agony upon each other. Yet, note well, neither the King of Martyrs nor the Queen of Martyrs utters one syllable of complaint: willingly they pay the awful price of our salvation.

O Jesus and Mary, we blush for shame. Only too well do we know who has caused you all this torture. Alas, we are the guilty ones who have wantonly broken your hearts by our many sins, our negligences, our black ingratitude. By the indescribable pain you endured on this occasion and by the depth of your pure love for each other give us now an abiding affection for both your hearts that henceforth we may not grieve but console them. Grant especially that in accordance with your request for reparation we may be very faithful to devotions of the First Friday and the First Saturday.

Most Sacred Heart of Jesus, have mercy on us!
Immaculate Heart of Mary, pray for us!

Priest: My people, what have I done to thee? Or in what have I grieved thee? Answer Me! For thy sake, I scourged Egypt with its first-born: and Thou has scourged Me and delivered me up.

People: O Holy God, O holy strong One, O holy immortal one, have mercy on us!

Devotedly yours in Christ,

+John C. Cody

The Seniors

September 1954. A timid young miss cautiously entered the portals of Saint Mary's Academy, fearful of the great unknown but willing to face the challenge which lay ahead. She is the senior of 1958, who will soon leave our beloved school as a young lady who through the years has grown physically, culturally, intellectually and spiritually, under the loving care of our Blessed Mother. But let us turn back and look over those four years of working, praying, and playing at the Academy.

On the opening day of school back in that September of 1954 our freshman was a bit confused. No doubt she wondered if she could ever remember the art of how-not-to-get-lost in the endless corridors and halls. However, she soon found many friendly girls who were willing to give her a helping hand. Getting acquainted with the Academy and her classmates was all a part of the fun of being a freshman. When she and four hundred other girls had assembled in the auditorium Sister Marcellina, the Superior, and Sister Francis Edward, the new principal, were introduced. There she learned the qualities that she should possess now that she would be a St. Mary's student. Finally, she met her teacher and fellow-classmates. Her first memorable day at school passed rather quickly.

During the succeeding months, besides her classroom activities, our freshman found herself occupied with many extra-curricular activities. The first important social event of the year was the Big Sisters' Party for the Little Sisters. Each freshman was adopted by a graduate who introduced her to many of the other graduates.

Among more serious events was the annual retreat. Our new pupil discovered that she enjoyed making a retreat at St. Mary's because of the beautiful chapel which she visited many times in order to spend a few quiet moments in prayer.

Sodality reunions, Y.C.S. meetings, basketball games and other such extra-curricular activities, along with semester examinations and the usual class-work, filled the life of our pupil. Towards the end of the year she took part in the skit "A Sketchbook of Women". At last in June came her promotion into second year, a success obtained by many hours of intensive study during the preceding ten months. It was worth the effort, however, for she was a sophomore.

A sophomore! This was the year in which she felt she was really a part of the school and that St. Mary's was truly hers. The same course of events took place this year, but our sophomore had changed. For one thing, she could vote for the Student Council officers. The retreat, the Y.C.S. meetings, Forty Hours Devotion, Sodality meetings, receptions such as the one honouring Cardinal Leger, all appeared very important to her. She seemed to have more time this year, since she was well acquainted with school routines and her fellow classmates. She took part in as many school activities as possible. In June, our sophomore was happy to be part of the beautiful pageant which commemorated the Centenary of the London Diocese. The year closed with the joy of knowing that she was no longer a sophomore but a lucky junior.

September 1956, and our young miss was a junior, only one step below the lofty height and a graduate! Throughout the school months, our junior enjoyed the various guest speakers who so graciously came to address the student body. Again there were May processions, the Y.C.S. Campaign, the retreat, parties, but of special importance to our junior was the ring ceremony in which she presented one of the graduates with a beautiful school ring. The juniors entertained the seniors and their mothers, with the playlet entitled "Mother Love". And finally, with the Farewell Party, the juniors were officially made seniors when the graduates "passed the torch" to the eager juniors.

The academic year of 1957-1958 will be unforgettable for our senior. A senior! What a feeling of well-being and joy that word brings to each girl of the graduating class. She experienced a taste of the happiness that comes with graduation when she donned the white cap and gown for her lovely ring ceremony, and again when she received her graduation pictures. Before that bright day, however, our senior will attend the annual closed retreat during which time she will present herself to our Lord not only with the memories of her past four years at St. Mary's but also with an open heart for Him to fill with the courage she will need to step forward and take her place in the world, spreading her Christian training and education to others. This glorious day of graduation will come in June when all the graduates of 1958 will pledge their loyalty and love to the Academy which during the past four years has guided them to the feet of our Blessed Mother.

THE JUNIORS

Tempus fugit! As we stand on the threshold of our senior year the full realization of this phrase comes to our mind. September found us in Grade XI with new hopes and determinations . . . and more hours of study. Upon entering the auditorium we were surprised to learn that Sister Gerard of Mary, teacher of Grade XI in previous years, had been appointed the new local superior.

Later, in the classroom, we found Physics was a new challenge which we are not sure we met head on. However, waves and rays, heat of fusion and of vaporization, protons and electrons succeeded one another. Latin wasn't easy and Geometry gave us a few headaches. But we all had one common love—Religion. Here we grew to love our Blessed Mother and her Divine Son more every day and it was then that we turned in our joys and sorrows.

We spent many hours, too, on extra-curricular activities. Y.C.S., Sodality and Retreats gave the year a spiritual foundation, while basketball, tennis and other sports provided for a strong moral character.

But now as we eagerly await the coming year we realize that soon our high school days will be but a pleasant memory for here we stand—the future graduates of 1959.

The Sophomores

As we, the Sophomores of 1958, look back over the closing year, we realize that we are no longer inexperienced in the ways of our beloved Academy. No longer are we too shy to speak out as we were when freshmen, but proudly now we voice our opinions in worthy activities such as Y.C.S. and Student Council. This was the first year we were allowed to vote and we did it with a consciousness of our responsibility.

Extra-curricular activities have attracted our interest, too, particularly in the field of athletics. The junior basketball and volleyball trophies were captured by sophomore classes. This year for the first time we Sophomores and Freshmen have handled a dance of our own, a very successful one, "The Raindrop Rhapsody." Throughout the year we helped to make possible more fun-filled assemblies in which we displayed our imaginative abilities.

Among the many pleasant experiences of the closing year, the most interesting and useful, however, were the hours spent in class. A glow of satisfaction accompanies our achievement there.

THE FRESHMEN

Never did I experience such a thrill as that which swept over me the first time some friends and I ascended the steps of St. Mary's Academy. I was now in High School, a High School which in every way measured up to my dreams.

I must admit that momentarily I felt lost among throngs of students assembled in the vast auditorium. My companions and I sat huddled together for fear of getting lost. With the appearance of the Principal on the stage, a hush fell over the chattering group of excited girls. Sister welcomed us to the student body and made us feel that this was our school. From that moment my fears died and my love for the school was born.

From the auditorium we were conducted to our classrooms. It was there that we really launched out on the serious business of being high-school freshmen. There we were introduced to the fascinating study of French, Latin, and Algebra. Although these subjects seemed difficult at first, we gradually mastered the difficulties.

One of the most exciting events of the first weeks was the campaign for Student Council President. Placards and posters cluttered the doors and littered the bulletin boards. We all joined in the excitement, only to be extremely disappointed on learning that Freshmen were not eligible to vote.

Another experience to which we were unaccustomed was the monthly assemblies during which the various classes provided lively entertainment. Even the Freshmen had a turn.

But these were not the only interesting activities. The noon-hour intramural basketball and volleyball games provided exciting competition.

However, we could not always have fun. Almost before we realized it, we had written two sets of examinations, and we are ready to write our finals in preparation for promotion to the Sophomore year.

Now as we look back at our first year at the Academy, we are as proud as can be of the school of our choice. We feel at home in these halls of learning, and our loyalty and our school spirit have grown deeper and stronger with each school day.

The "thrill" at first seeing St. Mary's is still with us, and we hope it will always remain.

Students pay tribute to Mary

S.M.A. girls responded wholeheartedly in the public demonstration of faith—the annual May Day Procession—organized to combat Communistic propaganda.

February the eleventh, feast of our Lady of Lourdes, furnished another opportunity for students to pay special tribute to our Blessed Mother.

Upper Right: Senior girls proudly bore the banner which introduced our school in Mary's procession.

Centre Left: Our float is always an outstanding contribution to the spectacle. This year it depicted "A Happy Death to Jesus through Mary".

Centre Right: Despite the windy weather, all High School Academy students participated in the march to offset Russia's claim for May Day.

Below: In an auditorium filled to overflowing, grades seven to thirteen assembled to honour Mary under the title of "Our Lady of Lourdes".

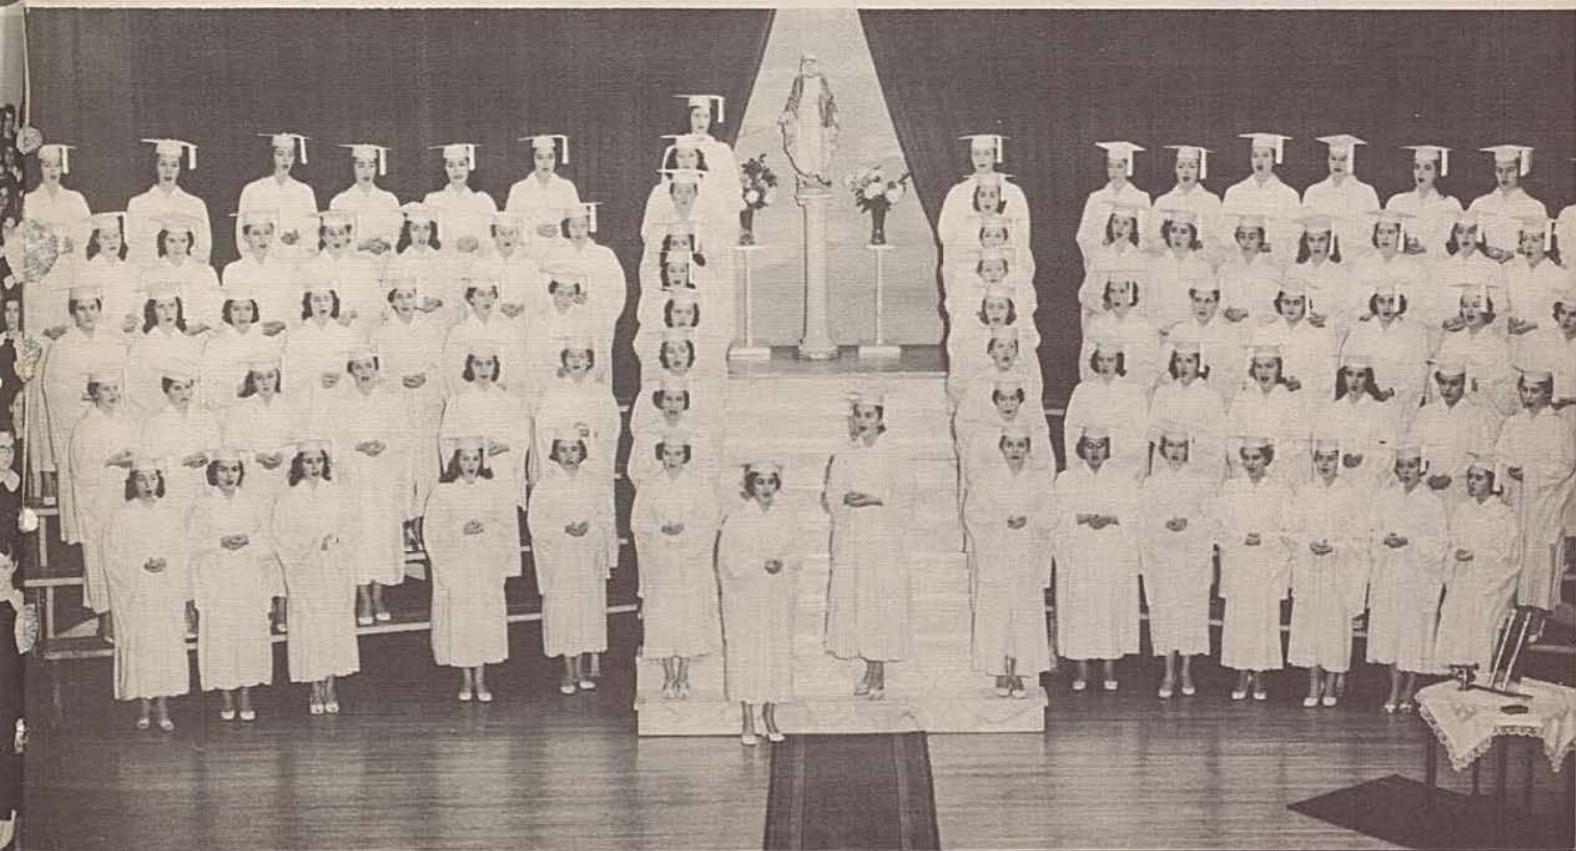

ANNUAL RING CEREMONY

Upper Left: Friday, the thirteenth of December, held no terror for eighty-five white gowned seniors who took the first official step in their role as the graduates of 1958, as they received their coveted rings from the juniors in the third annual ring ceremony of the Academy. The photographer caught this group of admirers just before the ceremony. Reverend R. Charbonneau of Christ the King Church, who presided at the blessing of the rings, is pictured with two members of the graduating class, Barbara Robinet (left) and Charlene Dennis. Suzanne Deziel, a junior, lends a helping hand to little Debra Constantine, the bearer of the circle of rings.

Upper Right: Father Charbonneau blesses the rings in the presence of the seniors, their parents and the undergraduates of the school. From his inspiring sermon which followed, this quotation is taken—"These rings, with all their meaning, have been blessed to-day; the blessing has brought God into the picture; and He, by this blessing, has shown His approval of this lasting bond being made between yourselves and your school, as signified by the ring you wear."

Below: The Blessed Virgin, patroness of our Academy, smiles down upon the seniors as they sing the praises of their Alma Mater, led by Diane Carpenter and Rosemarie Eich. (centre steps)

Amidst the beautiful fairy-tale setting of the Cinderella Ball light-hearted High School students whirled till one o'clock to the dreamy music of Matti Holli and his orchestra.

Lower Left: A group of participants, eager to know who will be Cinderella Queen, await the announcement.

Upper Right: Everyone took part in the grand march which preceded the crowning.

Lower Right: A group of students and their escorts are caught chatting during an intermission.

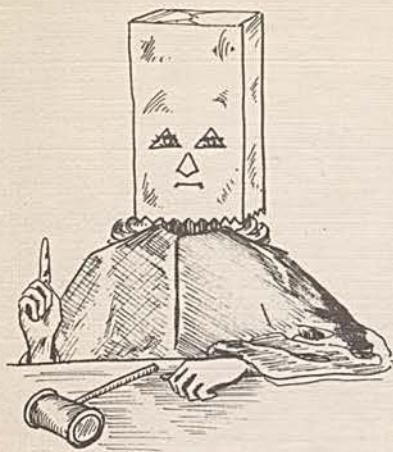

THE LOLLIPOP COURT

In January a "court" was held in the auditorium of this school where freshmen, accused of infractions of school regulations and laws, were put on trial. A masked senior jury always found the freshmen guilty and a smiling paper faced judge (Margaret Riordon) pronounced the humiliating sentences devised by the seniors.

The accompanying pictures show that the freshmen did not take too seriously either the requirements of dress or the penalties imposed.

The afternoon excitement ended happily in the gymnasium where dancing provided entertainment and the seniors with their "adopted" little sisters enjoyed refreshments.

The Farewell Party

The 1956-1957 school year ended with the traditional farewell party staged by the juniors in honour of the graduating class. The accompanying pictures portray the highlights.

Centre Left: The life of a High School girl was pictured in a skit which presented the Ghosts of jazz, of diets, of midnight snacks, of radios and of crossword puzzles.

Upper Right: A group of graduates.

Centre Right: The task of decorating the gymnasium was not easy, but with the help of Sister Virginia Marie we succeeded beautifully.

Lower Right: Juniors received the ceremonial torch from the seniors and with it assumed the responsibility of upholding the traditions and ideals of the school.

SNOWFLAKE FROLIC

A red and gold setting in Caboto Hall provided a perfect background for our popular annual Snowflake Frolic staged by the Student Council. The huge golden Christmas tree ornamented with red balls proved to be the main gathering site of the evening. The gold snowflakes dangling from the ceiling and on which played coloured lights was a constant source of admiration.

Below: Members of the high school classes and their friends danced to the strains of George Hallett's orchestra.

STUDENT COUNCIL CAMPAIGN

In this year's Student Council campaign the girls surpassed all previous records of enthusiasm and fine school spirit. The great display of banners, posters, tags and what not showed that the students had not spared any effort to promote the interests of their candidates.

One full day and a half were spent campaigning. In the afternoon of the second day the student body assembled in the auditorium, while the classes presented skits to promote the interests of their candidates and the nominees made their campaign speeches.

Inset: A small group of campaigners.

HOME ECONOMICS

Every St. Mary's girl has an opportunity to put into practice in our well equipped Home Economics department the theory learned in class.

Upper Left: Eleventh grade students prepare to be homemakers of tomorrow.

Centre: Twelfth graders hesitate at nothing in the line of sewing, not even the making of the little flower girl's outfit for graduation.

Lower Right: Friends and parents examine a general Home Economics exhibit.

Members of the commercial class work diligently to acquire speed and accuracy in typing.

A typical day in the XII-A Latin class!

Earnestly engrossed with an experiment, we see the members of the XI-B physics class.

Upper Left: Grade XI-D students find a wealth of knowledge and entertainment in our well equipped library.

Centre: The closing of a busy day for Grade XIII.

Centre Right: Grade X-A students are proud of their work in honour of Our Lady of Lourdes.

Lower Right: Un groupe de finissantes bilingues s'entretiennent, allègrement des questions d'actualité.

Hi-ho! Hi-ho! To S.M.A. we go.
As jolly as larks we board
the bus, you know.
At dear old St. Mary's life is peppy and gay,
So we keep beaming and bouncing and working all day.
Grade IX-E

Unravelling the intricacies of Algebra problems does not seem to dampen the spirits of these Grade XIII students.

Merry-go-round has its fascination long after childhood days have passed.

Grade X-A

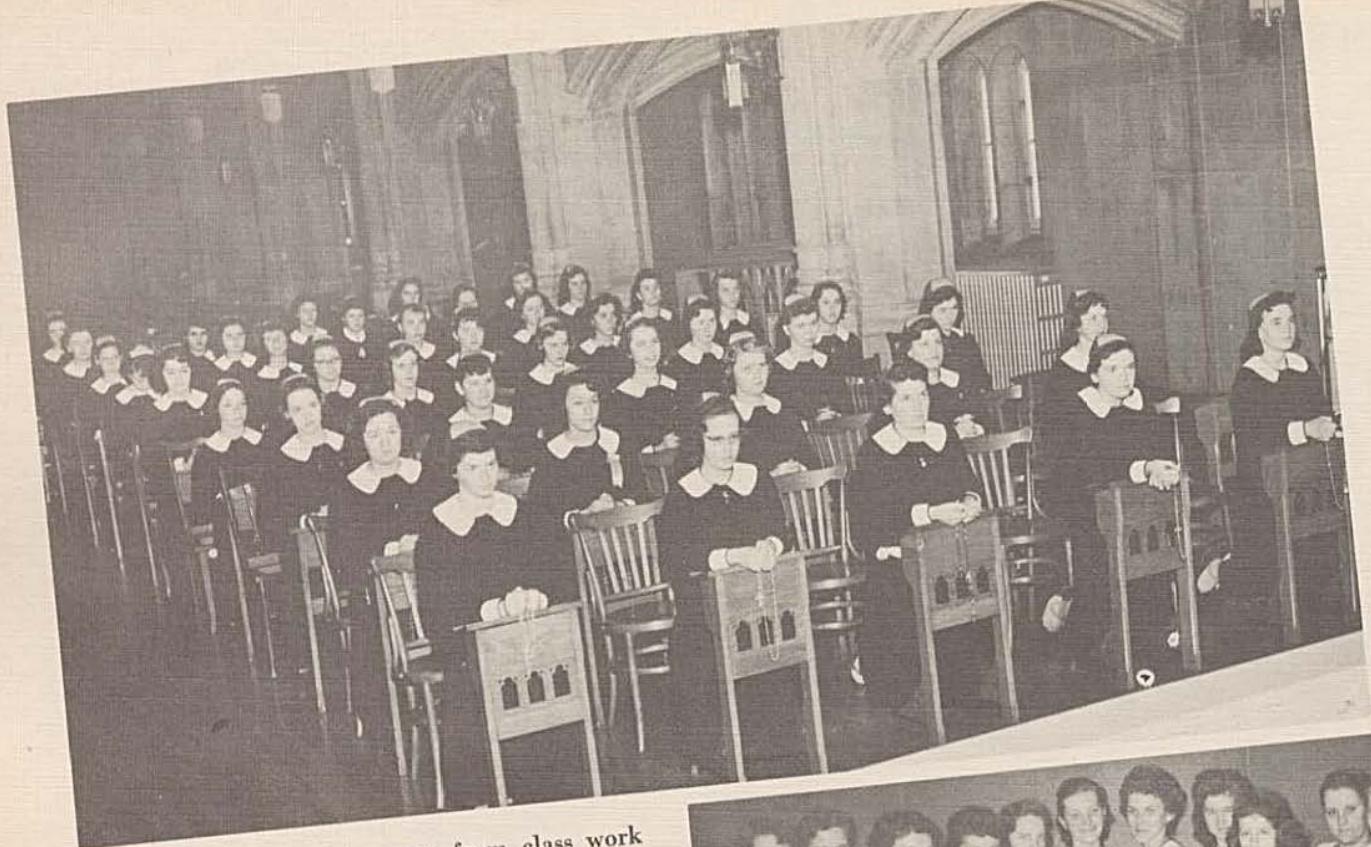

We wonder how far this X-D class got on their tour of St. Mary's.

Quand sonne l'heure du départ, les élèves de la onzième année bilingue se dirigent avec entrain vers les différents autobus. Elles jubilent à la pensée de réjouissantes perspectives qui les attendent au foyer.

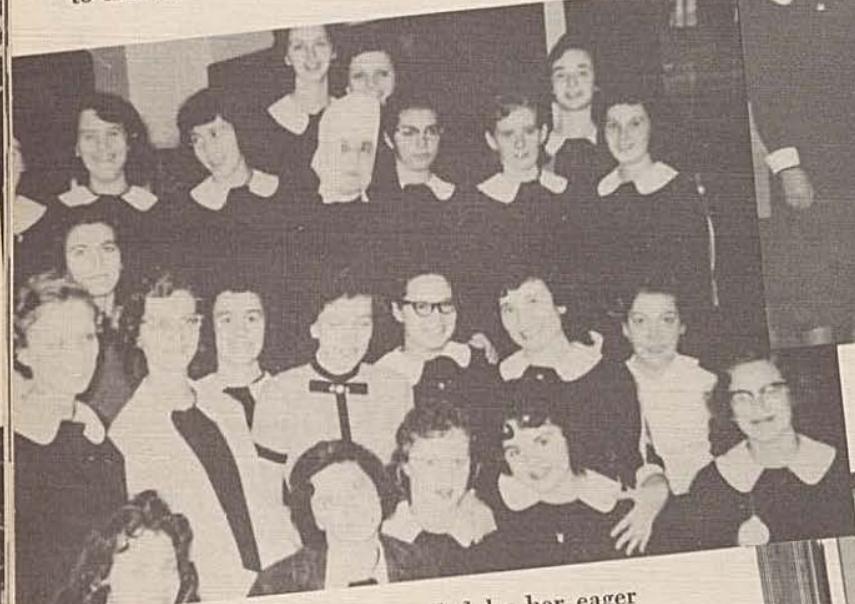

Could it be that IX-A students study even during intermissions.

Ces jouvencelles de IXe et Xe-C affirment sans ambages et sans réticence que la solution des mots croisés est une marotte des plus intéressantes.

IX-B girls welcome a brief respite from class work to meditate on the mysteries of the Rosary.

Sister Eulalie is surrounded by her eager "secretaries-to-be."

Resident students prepare for the next day.

ATHLETICS

Mrs. Violet Webb Leach,
M. Mus., L.L.C.M.

*"True art comes from work not chance,
As those move easiest who have learned to dance."*

Our athletic department is under the guidance of two zealous instructors, Mrs. Violet Webb Leach and Mrs. James McIsaac.

Mrs. Leach has charge of eurhythymics, dancing and calisthenics. Under her expert direction all high school students have ample opportunity to master individual skills in this field and participate in group dancing, both classical and modern creative.

"For good sports, it's always a victory!"

Mrs. McIsaac is our basis of power for true sportsmanship, which is, according to her principles, a combination of one's best efforts coupled with the consciousness that one must prove at all times that "Nobless Oblige." Students in all grades profit by her enthusiasm and instruction in basketball, volleyball and baseball. Tennis, archery, ping-pong, badminton and bowling are electives enjoyed by students in increasing numbers.

Mrs. James McIsaac, B.A.

Our extensive program of dancing provides ample opportunity for our students to acquire grace and poise. Mrs. Leach assists the XI-A class as they interpret a new dance.

Mrs. Leach accompanies on the piano her X-B students as they practice rhythmic movements fundamental to ease and grace in dancing.

Pictured here is the senior basketball team and the lively cheerleaders who spurred them on to victory. Back Row: Suzanne Gloster, Joan Raedle, Frances Blair, Gail White, Simone Couture, Mary Margaret Lucier, Lillian Salisbury. Centre Row: Shirley Dugal, June Noel, Catherine Nassr, Barbara DesMarais, Carol Ranahan, Frances Brannagan, Charlene Marier. Holding Ball: Barbara Carr, Alice Derby. Cheerleaders Left: Carol Morand, Sally Bensette, Peggy DesRosiers. Cheerleaders Right: Joanne Gill, Anne Marie Renaud, Rosalie Masse.

BADMINTON

During the past two years the sport of badminton has been gaining momentum in our school. Shown here are some of the interested girls getting a little extra practice in preparation for the tournament.

The Marian Tower

EDITORS' MESSAGE

As we proudly present the Marian Tower for 1958, dedicated to Our Lady of Lourdes, we extend a sincere expression of gratitude to all those who have contributed, even in a small measure, to the successful publication of this album of cherished memories.

We are especially grateful to Mother Provincial and Sister Superior, also to Sister Francis Edward for her tireless efforts on our behalf and her frequent words of encouragement.

Heartfelt thanks are also extended to the Sisters of the Faculty for their co-operation and assistance without which the success of the Marian Tower would not have been possible.

Much credit is due to the staff members for their close teamwork and the unselfish manner in which they made their services available at all times.

We thank also the members of the Student Body for their loyal support and their assistance in obtaining advertisements and patrons.

CLASS REPRESENTATIVES

S.M.A. is proud of these girls whose splendid cooperation with the editorial and business staff made our annual a success.

Seated: Diane Souliere, Gisèle Gunville, Suzanne Deziel, Frances Brannagan, Carol Ann Lamar, Kathleen Specht.

Standing: Sharon Specht, Sandra Marcov, Carolann Arnold, Kathleen Hartford, Janice Chwiejczak, Sandra Howson.

STUDENT COUNCIL 1957-1958

Under the dedicated leadership of Joyce Grey this organization worked diligently in cooperation with the faculty to uphold the principles of the school and promote the interests of the students.

President's Message

The school year is drawing to a close and with it the activities of the Student Council. We Council members tried to carry out our program in compliance with the wishes of the Student Body whom we only represent. We thank you for the trust you placed in us and the position of honour which you yourselves created for us and which we were able to fill successfully only because you were behind us wholeheartedly in every project.

To our Teachers and self-sacrificing Moderator we extend our deepest gratitude. To our Alma Mater we pledge our loyalty and love.

Joyce Grey, President

COUNCIL MEMBERS

Seated: Margaret Galbraith (Grade 13), Gail McLewin (Secretary), Anne Marie Renaud (1st Vice-Pres.), Joyce Grey (President), Mary Anne Moiseshyn (2nd Vice-Pres.), Catherine Rae (Treasurer), Theresa Lancop (12C), Standing: Judy Hales (9D), Joan Hennessy (11D), Loretta Biafore (10A), Karen Cady (9A), Yvette Soulliere (9C, 10C), Jill Youngson (11B), Marilyn LaPlante (10B), Suzanne Deziel (11C), Anne Senesi (10D), Rosemary Tassi (9B), Elaine Des Rosiers (11A).

MARIAN BEACON

EDITOR'S MESSAGE

At the close of a very successful year of publication, it is my great pleasure, as editor of the MARIAN BEACON, to express my sincere appreciation to my co-workers on the editorial staff and to all student-reporters for their generous efforts in providing up-to-date information on all school activities. I must add, however, that a large measure of our success was due to the lively interest of our student-readers. We are sincerely grateful for their cooperation and support.

Marianne Blonde, Editor

Suzanne Deziel

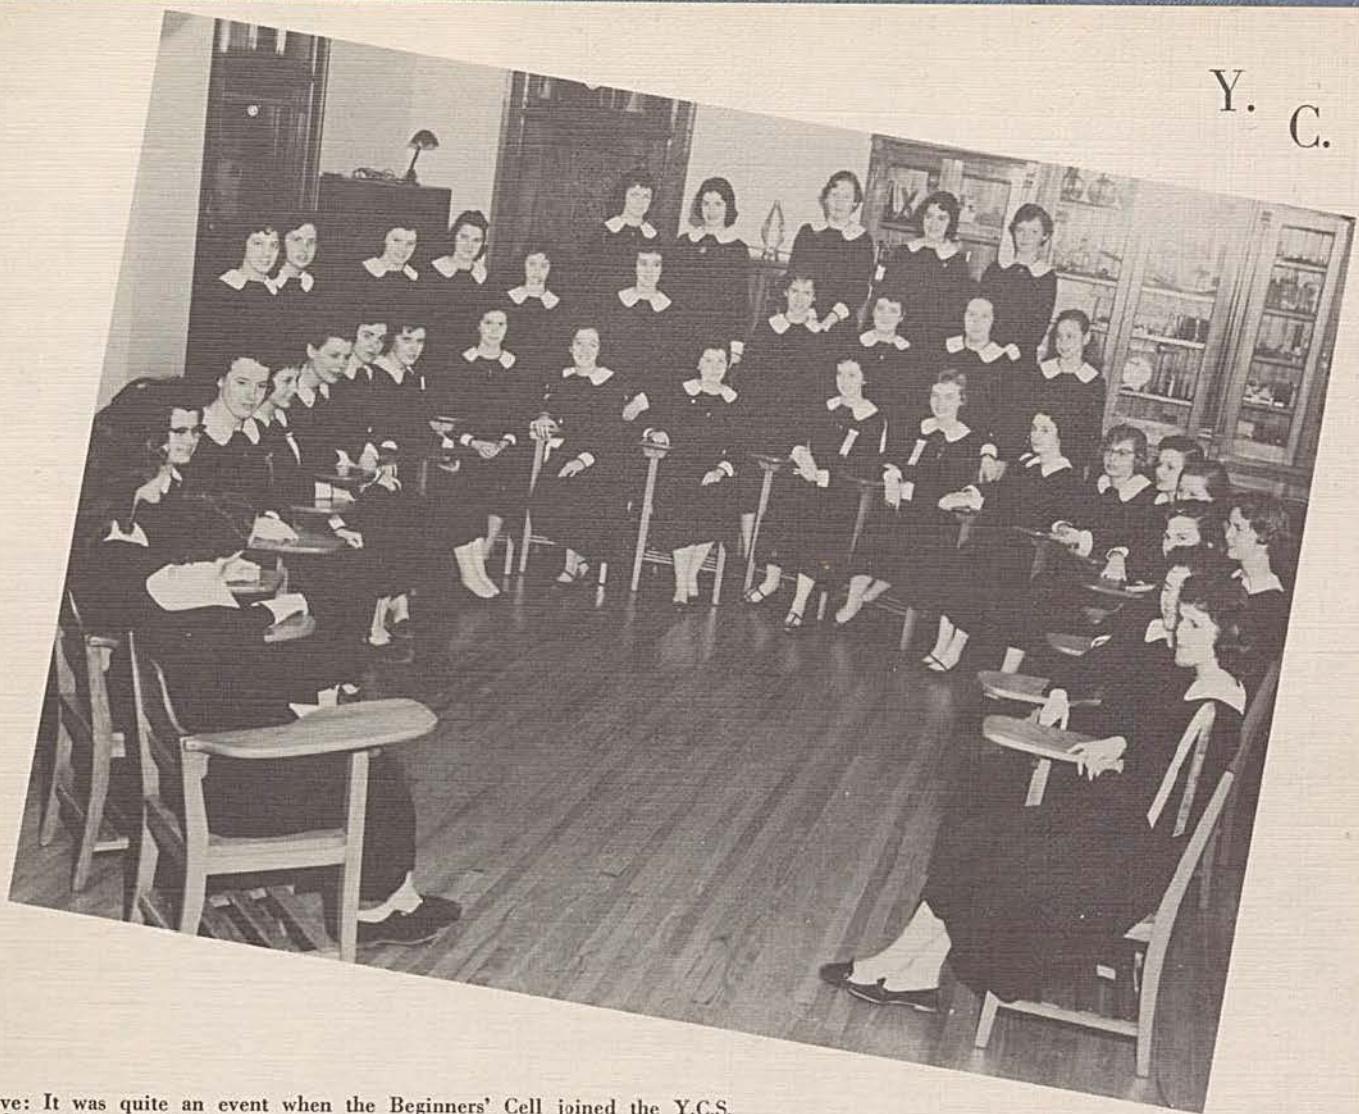

St. Mary's may well be proud of her weekly contribution to "The Teen Page" of the Windsor Daily Star. Suzanne Deziel's ceaseless interest in her companions and unflagging loyalty to her school led to the unfailing weekly news reports she submitted.

MARIAN BEACON STAFF

Seated: Marianne Blonde (editor), Marilyn Ouellette, Janet Lajeunesse, Rosemary Paterson, Eleanor Krogh, Margot Farnham, Rosalie Masse, Pamela Brown, Judith Carriere, Barbara Des Marais.

Standing: Carol Ann Belland, Suellen Duchesne, Gordana Budimir, Piera Massetti, Lorraine Daniel, Anne-Marie Thibault, Anne Roth, Marie Ouellette, Diane Souliere.

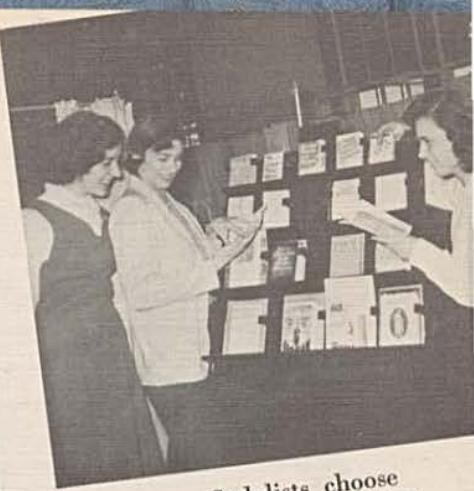

Above: It was quite an event when the Beginners' Cell joined the Y.C.S. Seniors for a joint meeting. In the next few weeks we shall discuss our summer-time life, chiefly from the standpoint of the many opportunities we have to serve others. Our own Christian convictions together with a steady diet of spiritual helps should enable us to enjoy a wonderful and wholesome vacation.

RED CROSS

For the third year S.M.A. seniors have enjoyed the privilege of following the Red Cross Home Nursing Course at the local Center, under the inspiring guidance of Mrs. Mae Creighton, director of volunteer nursing services at the Windsor Branch.

Learning to make a bed was just one item in the course. Pictured here at the "graduation" exercises at which the girls received their certificates and pins, are, from the left, T. C. White, president of the Windsor Branch, Red Cross Society; Charlene Marier and Suzanne Gloster, two of the students; Sister M. Francis Edward, principal of St. Mary's High School; Joyce Westfall, another student, and Miss Yvonne Tremblay, nurse instructor who assisted Mrs. Creighton.

- Acknowledgments -

We, the members of the Class of 1958, extend our gratitude to all who have helped us realize the production of a valued keepsake. Our yearbook is a precious record of four memorable years spent at St. Mary's. Through it we will be ever united by common memories to our dear companions who shared with us the social, intellectual and spiritual opportunities which our Alma Mater had to offer and to our devoted teachers under whose guidance we laboured to build a strong foundation for the edifice of our future lives.

We thank most heartily our generous patrons and advertisers; without their financial help this annual would have been impossible. We extend our most gracious thanks also to Sister Superior and the Faculty for their encouragement and assistance; our photographers, Mr. Barney Gloster and Miss Josephine Smith for their whole-hearted co-operation; Sumner Printing and Publishing Company and Omega Manufacturing and Book Binding Company for the splendid book produced.

...The Forward Look is another name for Progress

One look at any of the five exciting new Forward Look cars as it rounds a corner and flashes brilliantly down the street is enough to convince you. Progress . . . and the Forward Look do mean virtually the same thing.

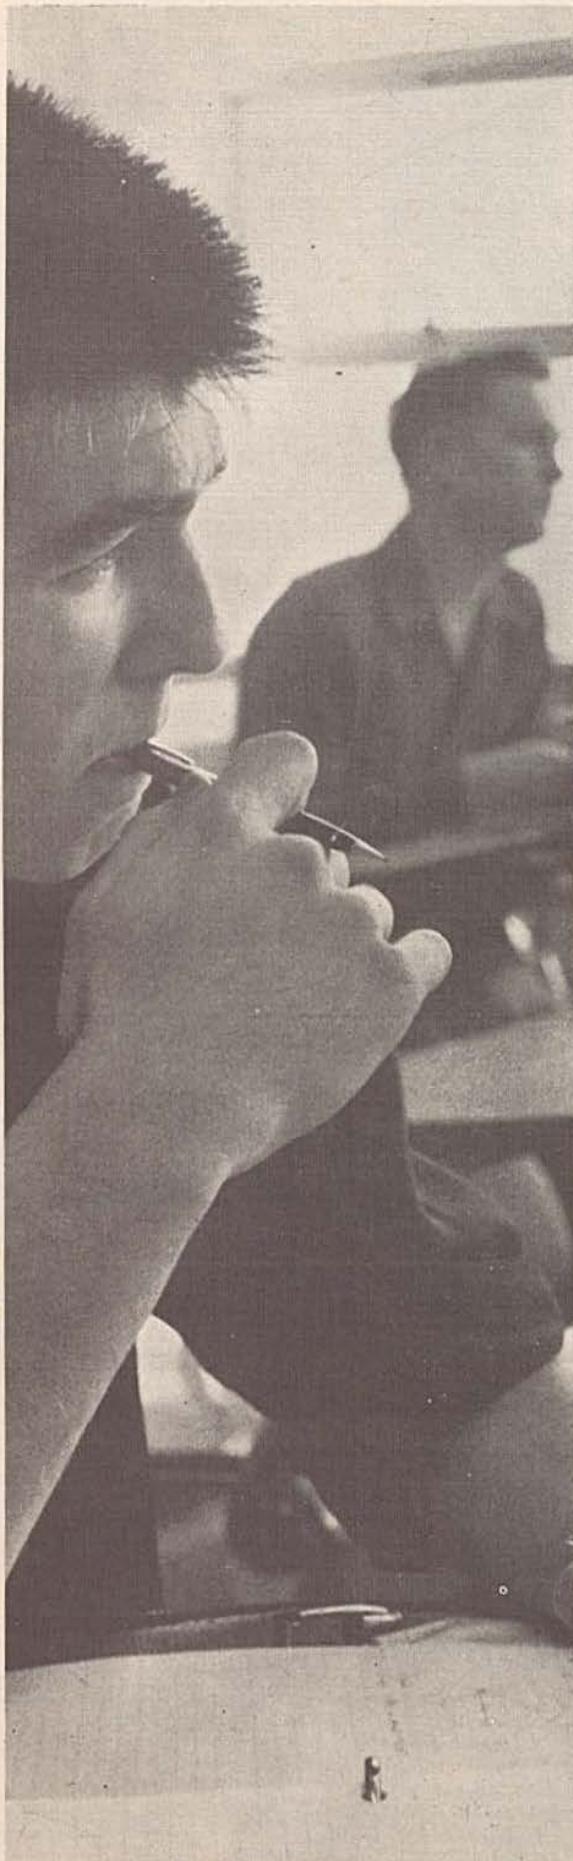

But this progress, as exemplified by the Forward Look is not confined only to the great advances in automotive styling with which you are familiar. It is expressed in many ways, and in many areas of Canadian life.

The Forward Look is symbolic of the dynamic growth that has made this nation rich with opportunity in every field of human endeavour.

WE, TOO, STUDY FOR YOUR FUTURE...

Right now Ford of Canada is thinking about you and studying for your future. This is because we think first of people, then of cars.

One day you'll be going to an automobile showroom. When that day comes, we'll be there with the car that meets your needs. For within the Ford family of fine cars, you will always find a car that is right for you and your way of life.
